

DAILY DEMOCRAT

LOUISVILLE:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1868.

THE CITY.

Peace Warrant.

Gustavus Henry was yesterday arrested and consigned to jail on a peace warrant.

A Handbill.

There were only five cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct before the City Court yesterday.

Police Circle.

The police complain of the times being duller in their "circle" of business than at any time within the past five years.

Re-established.

Fair Creek postoffice, in Jefferson county, has been re-established, and Mr. S. Lewis re-appointed postmaster.

Henry Vincent.

Will lecture in Weisiger Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings, January 21st and 22d, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association.

General Albert Pike.

This distinguished soldier, poet and scholar, was in the city yesterday, registered at the Willard Hotel. He appears to be in fine health and spirits.

Fancy Dress Ball.

A fancy dress ball was given last night in the upper portion of the city. It was largely attended by the sporting fraternity, and was a gay and festive affair.

Grand Military Ball.

The officers of the United States Army stationed at this place, gave a grand Military ball at Taylor barracks last night. It was largely attended, and was a happy affair.

Suspected Felon.

Thos. Lane, alias Dean, was arrested and lodged in jail last evening as a suspected felon. He gave bail for his appearance on next Wednesday and was released.

Fractured Farce.

L. D. Cunningham, a sable pugilist, was out on a fighting drunk yesterday. The "L. D." was taken in out of the snow by the "boys in gray" and safely lodged in jail.

Southern Circus.

This mammoth exhibition which opened in our city on Monday, and stay with us three days. The company is said to be the very best that has ever traveled in America.

A Good Day for Fire.

There were three alarms of fire sounded yesterday, but none of them amounted to a conflagration. The fire department, however, was out promptly every time, and on hand "like a thumb."

The Hotels.

For several days past travel has been quite brisk through the city, and the hotels have been well filled with guests. We notice a great many agents and drummers from the North passing through to "Dixie."

Chancery Court.

This tribunal commenced its regular session yesterday, Judge Cochran on the bench. No decrees of divorce were granted, and the business transacted was of no great interest. The court will hold its next session on Friday.

Fire Last Night.

An alarm of fire was sounded at about 11 o'clock last night from signal-box No. 1. It proved to be in a frame dwelling on Fulton street, near Young's saw-mill. The floor of the building was partially burned, but the loss was light.

Dead Drunk.

John Armstrong was picked up by the police last evening in a condition as limber as a washed paper collar. Jack had mixed entirely too much whisky with his river water, and it laid him out. He was carted to jail and laid on a shelf for the night.

Alarm of Fire.

The alarm of fire about noon yesterday was caused by the breaking of a candle in a lamp in a copper shop, on Portland avenue, below Fifteenth street. It was extinguished before the arrival of the engines, and no damage resulted.

Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire at about 1 o'clock last night from signal-box No. 1, proved to be in a frame dwelling on Fulton street, near Young's saw-mill. The floor of the building was partially burned, but the loss was light.

Dead.

John Armstrong was picked up by the police last evening in a condition as limber as a washed paper collar. Jack had mixed entirely too much whisky with his river water, and it laid him out. He was carted to jail and laid on a shelf for the night.

Real Estate.

The alarm of fire about noon yesterday was caused by the breaking of a candle in a lamp in a copper shop, on Portland avenue, below Fifteenth street. It was extinguished before the arrival of the engines, and no damage resulted.

Unfortunate.

A bright and pretty young girl, of about sixteen summers was presented in the City Court yesterday for disorderly conduct. Judge Craig took compassion upon the poor girl, and sent her to the St. Xavier's Industrial School for a term of six months.

More Weddings.

There were two bridal parties at the Willard Hotel yesterday from the interior of the State. The matrimonial epidemic is raging in all quarters, and from present indications all the girls between the ages of sixteen and thirty will be married before Christmas.

An Old Citizen Gone.

Mr. J. W. Earick, who resides in Portland, and who is an old resident of this city died his residence night before last. Mr. Earick was the father of a large and interesting family, and was a most excellent and worthy gentleman. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

Wholesale Robbery.

Armed Smith, a colored individual, who is ambitious to lay in a supply of household comforts for the winter, appropriated the clothing and furniture of Mrs. Amanda Smith, for which act of confusione Aristed was arrested and lodged in the First-street station.

Change of Time.

On and a finer Sunday the trains on the Jeffersonville railroad will arrive and depart as follows, making a difference of several minutes from the present time: Express leaves at 2:25 P. M. and arrives at 7:30 P. M. Mail arrives at 5:15, instead of 9 P. M. Accommodation at 2:15, instead of 1:30.

Mr. C. F. Finch.

We are requested to call the attention of the ladies who have solicited contributions for the Y. M. C. A. festival, to the meeting at the rooms of the association this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and to urge a full attendance. They are requested to make written reports of contributions received.

Borne Thieves.

We understand that horse thieves are operating extensively in this country and Bullitt. A few nights ago Mr. Beverly Summers, of Brook's Station, had a fine iron-gray mare stolen from him, and several other fine animals have been spirited away from various points of Bullitt county within the past week. It is believed that the animals are run off to Indiana.

Wool Pulling.

A spirited rong and tumble fight took place between two enraged colored females yesterday, in the alley between First and Second and Jefferson and Marquette. The names of the combatants were Laura Anderson and Eliza Reynolds. They grappled and fought for the wool which they had deadlocked when the scene of the fight this afternoon. Miss Crampton, who makes her last appearance to-night, on the 22d, will sustain the claim of the court of Richard III. The merited laurels won by Miss Crampton in her personation of the "hooked-bird" should be sufficient to fill the case.

REV. GEORGE O. BARNES.
His Election as Co-Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Appropriation for Street Raising.

DRUGS FOR THE POOR.

THE BOARDS MEET AGAIN TO NIGHT.

The Board of Common Council met in regular session last night, President Pat Bannon in the chair.

EVERY DAY.

The Especial attention of the ladies is called to J. M. Ladd's advertisement in the local column.

CITY TAXES.

Mr. A. Rammers publishes a notice this morning in which delinquent tax-payers are interested.

Interesting Item.

To know the lowest prices dry goods can be sold for in the United States go to Trade Palace, corner Fourth and Jefferson.

NEW YORK.

Postage Mill—Keeping of an Unknown Vessel—Drew $25,000 and a Quarrel on Eric Rock—Lawsuit for $100,000—Sensation—Two Brokers.

New York, Nov. 20.—A price fight between the Rock and Hill began, and Bill Hogan, for $400 a side, took place yesterday near Narrowsburg, N. Y. The match was made last September. The price was raised in full condition. Twenty-six rounds were fought, occupying one hour. The Rock was declared the victor. The latter was seconded by Matt Boyle and Bill Ritter; and Hogan by his brother, and a man named Van. Mike Lawlor was the referee. Both men were badly punished.

An unknown vessel was burned at Rockport, Long Island, on Tuesday night, during the storm. Nothing is known of the vessel or boarders.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The case of Henry Thriston is now on trial. W. R. Abbott, Esq., was sworn in as attorney.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS.

The following indictments were returned in the grand jury: Henry Smith and Thos. Hines, larceny; John Riley, larceny; John Locke, larceny; Mary Jones, larceny; John Colleburger, malicious wounding; George Matous and others, larceny; Jacob Fitzer, larceny; Jas. Mylne and Thos. Kelly, larceny; Wm. Ackley and Jas. Gibson, larceny. The grand jury adjourned until Monday morning.

OUR RELATIONS WITH THE INDIANS.

Details of Operations on the Plains.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 20.—General Sherman's report of affairs in the military division of the Missouri has just been received from the grand jury.

Henry Smith and Thos. Hines, larceny; John Riley, larceny; John Locke, larceny; Mary Jones, larceny; John Colleburger, malicious wounding; George Matous and others, larceny; Jacob Fitzer, larceny; Jas. Mylne and Thos. Kelly, larceny; Wm. Ackley and Jas. Gibson, larceny. The grand jury adjourned until Monday morning.

EVERY DAY.

The Especial attention of the ladies is called to J. M. Ladd's advertisement in the local column.

CITY TAXES.

Mr. A. Rammers publishes a notice this morning in which delinquent tax-payers are interested.

INTERESTING ITEM.

To know the lowest prices dry goods can be sold for in the United States go to Trade Palace, corner Fourth and Jefferson.

NEW YORK.

Postage Mill—Keeping of an Unknown Vessel—Drew $25,000 and a Quarrel on Eric Rock—Lawsuit for $100,000—Sensation—Two Brokers.

New York, Nov. 20.—A price fight between the Rock and Hill began, and Bill Hogan, for $400 a side, took place yesterday near Narrowsburg, N. Y. The match was made last September. The price was raised in full condition. Twenty-six rounds were fought, occupying one hour. The Rock was declared the victor. The latter was seconded by Matt Boyle and Bill Ritter; and Hogan by his brother, and a man named Van. Mike Lawlor was the referee. Both men were badly punished.

An unknown vessel was burned at Rockport, Long Island, on Tuesday night, during the storm. Nothing is known of the vessel or boarders.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The case of Henry Thriston is now on trial. W. R. Abbott, Esq., was sworn in as attorney.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS.

The following indictments were returned in the grand jury: Henry Smith and Thos. Hines, larceny; John Riley, larceny; John Locke, larceny; Mary Jones, larceny; John Colleburger, malicious wounding; George Matous and others, larceny; Jacob Fitzer, larceny; Jas. Mylne and Thos. Kelly, larceny; Wm. Ackley and Jas. Gibson, larceny. The grand jury adjourned until Monday morning.

EVERY DAY.

The Especial attention of the ladies is called to J. M. Ladd's advertisement in the local column.

CITY TAXES.

Mr. A. Rammers publishes a notice this morning in which delinquent tax-payers are interested.

INTERESTING ITEM.

To know the lowest prices dry goods can be sold for in the United States go to Trade Palace, corner Fourth and Jefferson.

NEW YORK.

Postage Mill—Keeping of an Unknown Vessel—Drew $25,000 and a Quarrel on Eric Rock—Lawsuit for $100,000—Sensation—Two Brokers.

New York, Nov. 20.—A price fight between the Rock and Hill began, and Bill Hogan, for $400 a side, took place yesterday near Narrowsburg, N. Y. The match was made last September. The price was raised in full condition. Twenty-six rounds were fought, occupying one hour. The Rock was declared the victor. The latter was seconded by Matt Boyle and Bill Ritter; and Hogan by his brother, and a man named Van. Mike Lawlor was the referee. Both men were badly punished.

An unknown vessel was burned at Rockport, Long Island, on Tuesday night, during the storm. Nothing is known of the vessel or boarders.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The case of Henry Thriston is now on trial. W. R. Abbott, Esq., was sworn in as attorney.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS.

The following indictments were returned in the grand jury: Henry Smith and Thos. Hines, larceny; John Riley, larceny; John Locke, larceny; Mary Jones, larceny; John Colleburger, malicious wounding; George Matous and others, larceny; Jacob Fitzer, larceny; Jas. Mylne and Thos. Kelly, larceny; Wm. Ackley and Jas. Gibson, larceny. The grand jury adjourned until Monday morning.

EVERY DAY.

The Especial attention of the ladies is called to J. M. Ladd's advertisement in the local column.

CITY TAXES.

Mr. A. Rammers publishes a notice this morning in which delinquent tax-payers are interested.

INTERESTING ITEM.

To know the lowest prices dry goods can be sold for in the United States go to Trade Palace, corner Fourth and Jefferson.

NEW YORK.

Postage Mill—Keeping of an Unknown Vessel—Drew $25,000 and a Quarrel on Eric Rock—Lawsuit for $100,000—Sensation—Two Brokers.

New York, Nov. 20.—A price fight between the Rock and Hill began, and Bill Hogan, for $400 a side, took place yesterday near Narrowsburg, N. Y. The match was made last September. The price was raised in full condition. Twenty-six rounds were fought, occupying one hour. The Rock was declared the victor. The latter was seconded by Matt Boyle and Bill Ritter; and Hogan by his brother, and a man named Van. Mike Lawlor was the referee. Both men were badly punished.

An unknown vessel was burned at Rockport, Long Island, on Tuesday night, during the storm. Nothing is known of the vessel or boarders.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The case of Henry Thriston is now on trial. W. R. Abbott, Esq., was sworn in as attorney.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS.

The following indictments were returned in the grand jury: Henry Smith and Thos. Hines, larceny; John Riley, larceny; John Locke, larceny; Mary Jones, larceny; John Colleburger, malicious wounding; George Matous and others, larceny; Jacob Fitzer, larceny; Jas. Mylne and Thos. Kelly, larceny; Wm. Ackley and Jas. Gibson, larceny. The grand jury adjourned until Monday morning.

<h3

LOUISVILLE:
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1868.

News by the Mails.

THE STATE.

A first class dairy has been organized in Clark county.

New buildings are being erected in all parts of Owensboro.

The Bourbon House, in Paris, is to be sold at public auction.

Stocks ruled exceedingly low in Mount Sterling on Monday last.

There is a movement on foot to organize the militia of Henry county.

A Southern minister has been sent to the Oldham jail for drunkenness.

Large numbers of hogs are being shipped from Cynthia to Cincinnati.

F. T. Turner has been appointed Postmaster at Winchester, via Thos. H. Berry, resigned.

John W. Coleman, Sr., one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Kenton county, is dead.

Youghiogheny coal is selling at $4 per load of twenty-five bushels at Newport. The stock is not large.

Winchester is troubled with lawlessness and rowdyism on the part of some of her less worthy citizens.

T. S. Tucker, Esq., has been made Master Commander of the Clark County Cavalry.

A little stock on the markets and but few sales is the report concerning the last court day in Mt. Sterling.

Less stock on the Daviess market last court day than usual, but what was sold brought better prices.

The Daviess county distillers are ready and anxious to begin operations as soon as the powers that be will permit.

Whisky caused James Jones to stab Turner Reid, last Monday, in Mount Sterling. The wound was not serious.

The corn crop of Pendleton county is the finest, by several thousand barrels, ever raised there. An influx of whisky distillers may be looked for.

A negro shot and killed a colored rival at a negro ball near Shelby City last Saturday night. He was shortly afterwards arrested and lodged in jail.

A convention of the press of Kentucky, to meet in Frankfort, on the 6th of January next, is being favorably considered by the papers of the State.

There were more drunkens men in Mount Sterling, last Monday (County court day), than have been seen on a similar occasion for some years past.

The Newport and Cincinnati Bridge Company have executed a beautiful lithograph of the structure which they propose spanning the Ohio river with at this point.

Pendleton county has appropriated ten thousand dollars to build two bridges over the Licking river, and six thousand dollars to build one at Morgan's Station.

On Saturday last Mr. Charles Smoot, of Mayville, while preparing to unload an ox-cart at a corn crib, was caught between the cart and crib by a sudden movement of the oxen and very seriously, if not fatally, injured.

Mr. Church, of Mercer county, sold his hog rents that averaged him $1000 per year.

These little pigs weighed six hundred and fifty-five pounds.

The Danville Advocate calls upon the Lexington Statesman to correct its rumor to the effect that two negroes were recently hung in Danville. There was not a word of truth in it.

Detective Butts, who went from Covington to Cynthia with two thieves arrested in the former place, says that he found the jail at the latter place so full that, to use his own language, "the prisoners' feet were sticking out of the windows." He was in consequence compelled to place the men he had under arrest in charge of officers to be guarded until their trials take place.

THE SOUTH.

Columbus, Ga., is badly afflicted with bungars.

Springfield, Mo., has been visited by a severe conflagration recently.

Knoxville is about to put a new steamer into the upper Tennessee river trade.

The Comptroller has been ordered to wait the affairs of the Southern Bank of Tennessee.

The deputations of a band of juvenile desperados in New Orleans are becoming intolerable.

Several hundred negroes voted for Seymour at the late election in Wilkes county, Ga., at the election of

A dead negro and a bottle of whisky were found on the railroad track three miles above Kinston, N.C.

The trial of Michael Lammie, who killed and mangled Burnet last summer, is now in progress at St. Louis.

Mr. Roberts, living seven miles south of Kinston, N.C., Miss., killed a panther measuring six feet and a half and weighing one hundred pounds.

The Atlanta Constitution says: If a fellow by the name of Rice, who was a member of the Constitutional party, last summer, don't rein in the money he has collected, we'll tell the public that he is an abuser.

The Esopus Lanes elevator and warehouse has been completed, and four hundred business men of St. Louis signed a grand jollification over the fact a few days ago.

The great grand jollification over the Esopus Lanes elevator and warehouse has been completed, and four hundred business men of St. Louis signed a grand jollification over the fact a few days ago.

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by the Bishop of

The Englishman, who was to have been married to a Miss, was granted a dispensation by